The Middleburn Register IS PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY MOUNING, BY

J. H. BARRETT & J. COBB. DEFICE IN STEWART'S BUILDING, ON MAIN ST

TERMS.

By Mail, or at the Office, per annual, $1.50 If not paid within the year. 1.73 By Carrier. 2.60 If not paid within the year, 2.25 II No paper discontinued until arrearages re paid.

All communications must be Past Paid.

P. V. B. Palmer is our agent in Boston

Law of Newspapers.

1. Subscribers who do not give express no tice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.

2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their papers, the publisher may continue to send them till all that is due be paid.

3. If subscribers position or reference to take them till all that is due be paid.

2. If subscribers, neglect or refuse to take their papers from the office to which they are directed, they are held responsible till they have settled their bills and ordered their papers.

-continued.
4. If subscribers move to other places, without informing the publisher, and the paper is sent to the former direction, they are held re-

The courts have decided that refusing to ake a paper from the office, or removing and caving stonealled for, is prima facia evidence er intentional fraud.

6. A Postmaster neglecting to inform a publisher when his paper is not taken from the office, makes himself lighte for his subscription price.

UNION MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

Aubott Lawrense Rother John D. Lave Maine Line Worth, New York, Cristley Jones, Maine Basics States, J. Boston, Joseph H. Williams Harry Cass and Rector. Thomas Bigarty, Courting C. College V. Wolf, Holderty Harris, Foundation Francis, Barris, Francisco, Dastet, Stant, Jr., Vice President.

THIS COMPANY Continues to Insure Lives on the most Favorable Terms.

DIVIDEND OF PROFITS Must be very large, owing to the peruliar advan-tages which life members have in this Company, and the great care and good judgment of its man-

PRAYELLING and residence privite on sun-TRAVELLISA and research to the six you also have been also be foreign brischene always granted at reduced rates.

A Indust. Christian ground desired, or premiums for Life Policies, the amount being 40

N. E. Persons insured during the cur-cent year state in the relation of the center of the center of the less than the liberator, and ill desired information open the subject, may be chained by mail if written for, rest PAID, or at the Agent's. W. S. JOHNSON, Agent.

Hartford Life and Health Insurance Company. Organized at finctions, Connecticut, September, 1=45.

INSURED CAPITAL $100,000. General Agent for Vermont.

I. G. BINGHAM, Williston.

Apolications may be made at any time at week, but received not a line in answer. Six

In community it is selected, in the following generating a latter from his employers that explained Agents and Medical Examiners to the Com- all. Shortly after his departure for the

Marsin, Graett, Calcon T. Morea Calcon G. Tiblen, Class. Marsin, Graett,

Main early hour on the 19th of April, Alan early hour on the 19th of April, 1840, the Court House in Clarksville, Texas, people to the charms of impassioned cloline got a quiet farm-house in the war-times past there had rever been wittal W. Hale, Hamber; John Fox, Walling the people to the charms of impassioned cloline got a quiet farm-house in the war-times past there had rever been wittal W. Hale, Hamber; John Fox, Walling the people to the charms of impassioned cloline got a quiet farm-house in the country, a very humble place to be sure, the people to the charms of impassioned cloline got a quiet farm-house in the country, a very humble place to be sure, the people to the charms of impassioned cloline got a quiet farm-house in the country, a very humble place to be sure, the people to the charms of impassioned cloline got a quiet farm-house in the country, a very humble place to be sure, the people to the charms of impassioned cloline got a quiet farm-house in the country and the people to the charms of impassioned cloline got a quiet farm-house in the country and the people to the charms of impassioned cloline got a quiet farm-house in the country and the people to the charms of impassioned cloline got a quiet farm-house in the country and the people to the charms of impassioned cloline got a quiet farm-house in the country and the people to the charms of impassioned cloline got a quiet farm-house in the charms of impassioned cloline got a quiet farm-house in the charms of impassioned cloline got a quiet farm-house in the charms of impassioned cloline got a quiet farm-house in the charms of impassioned cloline got a quiet farm-house in the charms of impassioned cloline g ON THE MUTUAL PLAN, and reserved Fund, received from mutual in-

ON THE JOINT STOCK PLAN,

age of thirty-two years, resolves to expend the bands. She brought her suit for slanding the first two years, resolves to expend twenty-five dollars personant for insurance on his life. On the Material plan it will secure him policy of one thousand dollars. On the Joint to the result of excitement, to tear to piece the argument of Ashley, which melts away at his track out a pane or two ef glass with ment of Ashley, which melts away at his my boot. I lean against the wall in a very ure him a policy of methousand and five hun-red dollars. Court, for 1840. ON LIFE AND HEALTH COMBINED munity, as to the issues, became for deeper

The rates are as favorable to the assured as safety to the company will permit. Insurance in all who have others depending on them for support.

When it was known that Ashley and Pike, of the rudest peacant could comprehend it are pastering, as would set me down for a rounged for damages in town, or make a damages in town, or make a prior housewife fret herself into a without effort.

Also, he came to the dazzling with of the raging giver. I laugh out toud with my to all who of New Orleans, each with enormous fees, CALIFORNIA LIFE RISKS, had been retained by Hopkins for his de-taken at Lowen saves than by any other Com- fence.

This is owing to the fact that the rates on the The trial, on the indictment for murder,

AND COMPANY is annually prosperous.

The success is unprecedented by that of any ponents. It was a fight of dwarfs against and exterminating successes of the stranger an extravagant comfort. this country. Its Managers are among our most respected and responsible citizens.—
They are men who exercise the unnest care in the throng of spectators grew in numbers as the throng of spectators g

All heads of families should consider the im-

The Ladder of St. Augustine. BY RENRY W. LONGFELLOW.

Saint Augustine! well hast thou said, A ladder, if we will but tread

Beneath our feet each deed of shame! All common things-each day's events, That with the hour begin and end; Our pleasures and our miscontents Are rounds by which we may ascend.

Mills, looking kindly at the plaintiff.

he Judge, glancing around the bar.

Judge Mills repeated the question.

ie beautiful Mary, bursting into tears.

The low desire—the base design, That make another's virtues less : The revel of the giddy throng,

And all occasions of excess ! The longing for ignoble things, The strife for triumph more than truth, The hardening of the heart, that brings Irreverence for the dreams of youth ! All thought of ill-all gvil deeds, That have their root in thoughts of ill, Whatever hinders or impedes

The action of the nobler will! All these must first be trampled down Beneath our feet, if we would gain In the bright fields of Fair Renown

We have not wings-we cannot soar-But we have feet to scale and climb The cloudy summits of our time.

The mighty pyramids of stone That wedge-like cleave the desert airs When nearer seen, and better known, Are but gigantic flights of stairs.

The distant mountains, that aprear Their frowning foreheads to the skies Are crossed by pathways, that appear As we to higher levels rise.

The heights by great man reached and kess Were not attained by endden flight, But they, while their companions stept, Were tolling unward in the night

Standing on what too long we hore. With shoulders bent and downcast eye A path to higher destinies.

Nor deem the irrevocable Past, As wholly wasted-wholly vain-If rising on its wreeks, at last, To something nobler we attain.

The Volunteer Counsel. A TALE OF JOHN LAYLOR. We copy the following from the New York Sunday Times. The subject of it, John Taylor was licensed, when a youth of twenty-one, to practise at the bar of this city sessed extenordinary genius. The graces of right to the opening speech, as well as the his punishment to God." his person, combined with the superiority of his intellect enabled him to win the hand ary was uffered. Taylor hade forewell to his of Prentiss. They saw they find caught a ers, and beaten almost to death. it was impossible to guess. practice, if technel, found-had, at this at mouths elapsed, when the husband received

> West, the wife and her father removed to the Senate of the United States. nt, Mid. Mississippi. There she immediately obtain-broad parelment.

The trial immediately went on-the last degree; sometimes he preached, final burst of oratory that brought the house rushing as a cataract of fire. And this is Prospect Character Spencer, Continuer Capen last, a fever carried him off at a comparative last, as fever carried him off at a A create at R. Throul, County Agent Her fords Extra James, Brondows, Henry Strawness he pleaded at the hard until, at her fords extra James, Brondows, Contonary Cappen Leonard, Chirodows, Silas W. Holmer, Comp. Leonard, Chirodows, Silas W. Holmer, Chi ty, while the strong feeling, apparent on ex. the previous speeches. Still, and straight, old New England stamp, where I some-ON THE MUTUAL PLAN.

This company will insure at the usual rates, and in three particulars claim the superiorny over all socious Companies.

In Deducting only ten per cent economission from the Mutual Insurance Find, instead of the entire expenses of the Company, annually, 2nd, Griving serip certificates of profits each year, payable in cash when iwo bounded thouse and follars has accumulated as a reserved minum of Northern Texas, offered a great insulation, such scrip bearing interest from the content of the wealthiest planters and most influential men of Northern Texas, offered a great insulation, such scrip bearing interest from the content of the wealthiest planters and most influential men of Northern Texas, offered a great insulation, such scrip bearing interest from the content of the wealthiest planters and most influential men of Northern Texas, offered a great insulation, such scrip bearing interest from the content of snow; but for that eternal twinch that came and went perpetually in his sallow over the farm-accounts, and to see that came and went perpetually in his sallow over the farm-accounts, and to see that came and went perpetually in his sallow over the farm-accounts, and to see that came and went perpetually in his sallow over the farm-accounts, and to see that came and went perpetually in his sallow over the farm-accounts, and to see the cone of snow; but for that eternal twinch that came and went perpetually in his sallow over the farm-accounts, and to see that came and went perpetually in his sallow over the farm-accounts, and to see the cone of snow; but for that eternal twinch that came and went perpetually in his sallow over the farm-accounts, and to see the cone of snow; but for that eternal twinch that came and went perpetually in his sallow over the farm-accounts, and to see the cone of snow; but for that eternal twinch that came and went perpetually in his sallow over the farm-accounts, and to see the cone of snow; but for that eternal twinch that came and went perpetually in his s ery flushed face throughout the assembly, and anotionless in his seat, his pale, smooth times go for a day or two in the Winter, to and reserved Fund, received from mattest in threatened to chastise him for the outrage, one capital stock, one handred thousand whereupon Hopkins loaded his gun and went stiling, not behind it—and so near to the ly hig enough for a broad backelor bedstock insurance is pledged for the payment of the capital stock in the capital st to Elliston's & shot him in his own door. The murderer was arcested, and halfed to answer with his long, bony fingers, wake in the morning with my eye upon With eyes still half shut, and standing rig- a saucy-colored lithographic print of some tense excitement; and Hopkins, in order to id as a pillar of iron, his thin lips, curled as fancy "Bessy." at his bands. She brought her suit for slan. magic incantation; while the speaker pro it a visit; and if I cannot open the wine grew sharper-his sallow face kindled up- that I am neither afraid of one nor the oth-Into its owing to the fact that the rates on the Joint Stock plan of this Company are one third less than in Munual Company are one third less than in Munual Companies generally.

Many young men are now getting an insurance on their lives, and raising their funds to go to Carlifornia with, by berrowing, against their policies as security from their friends.

Tak Haerroon Live and Health Issue.

The minutes Pike's wit seemed the foam of following their policies as security from their friends. as fire globes, and glaring like twinmetensy, hot as to warm half the celiar below, and been foreseen, by comparing the talents of beart streamed out on the face. In five for hours together, white with flame. I'd minutes Pike's wit seemed the foam of fol-be sure, the windows are not very tight, ly, and his finest satire horrible profanity, between broken panes and had joints, so by the argument and elequence of their op-the discharge of their duties, and are determined to the duties, and are determined to do a safe and successful business. — Hart. well as excitement; and what may seem allusion on Prentiss, he turned short on the hearth; I put out the tallow candle on the matter for fame—whose eye will it bright yellow, billious, nervous—ugly as sin, even in ran decidedly for Hopkins. His money had testimony into atoms, and hurled into their one leg broke,) then, drawing my chair the inheritance?

previous day, that when the slander case The excitement of the crowd was tre- pose myself for an evening of such sober She hides it in her chair; she has pity on below her ribs & her limbs wagging like the was called, Mary Eiliston was left without mendous. Their united life and soul appear. and thoughtful quietude, as I believe, on you. an attorney - they had all withdrawn. The ed to hang on the burning tongue of the my soul, that very few of my fellow men pigmy pettifoggers dured not brave again stranger. He inspired them with the powers have the good fortune to enjoy. the sharp wit of a Pike, and the scathing of his own passions. He saturated them with the sharp wit of a Pike, and the scathing of his own malicious feelings. He I can hear now and then,—though there into the garden where the first birds are wash-tubs, with their apron strings drawn a-

"Have you no counsel?" inquired Judge seemed to have stolen nature's long-hidden is a thick stone chimney, and broad entry singing. Listen to them with her ;- what "No, sir i they have all deserted me, and sea of thought and emotion, which rose and his wife, to put two babies to sleep. This not shudder at her tears-they are lears am ton poor to employ any more," replied fell and boiled in billows as he chose. But occupies them, I should say usually an of Thanksgiving. Press the hand that having pretensions to gentility-to-say noth-his greatest triumph was to come. "In such a case, will not some chivalrous ember of the profession volunteer?" asked ussassin, Hopkins, as his lean, taper fingers try.) is the blaze of my fire. By ten, or The thirty lawyers were silent as death. "I will, your honor," said a voice from gument, cutting off all hope of escape. He and blazes, and goes out,-even like our the thickest part of the crowd, situated best pilled up buge bastions of insurmountable joys!—and then slip by the light of the her breathing long and interrupted.

Tacts. He dug beneath the marderer and embers into my bad, where I luxuriate in She hears you; her eyes open; you put As the tones of that voice many started slanderer's feet, ditches of dilemmas, such as such sound, and healthful slumber, as only your hand in hers; yours trembles; hers tion of such folly ! di way from their seats; and perhaps there no sophistry could overleap, and no stretch such rattling window frames, and country does not. Her lips move; it is you was not a heart in the immense throng which of ingenuity evade; and having thus, as mir, can supply. ful not best something quicker-it was so one might say, impounded the victim, and The other evening-it happened to be "Be strong," she says, "God will help nearthly sweet, clear, ringing, and mourn- girt him about like a scorpion, in the circle on my last visit to my farm-house-when you?"

into general laughter, when a tall, gaunt O! then, but it was a vision both glori- jectures as to the income of the year; had A leng breath-another; -you are alon spectral figure, that nobody present rement- rious and dreadful to behold the orator. planned a new wall around one lot, and again. No tears now; poor man. You was a Tory. sered to have seen before, elbowed his way. His actions, before graceful as the wave of the clearing up of another, now covered cannot find them! through the crowd, and placed himself with- the golden willow in the breeze, grew im- with patriarchal wood; and wondered if --- Again home early. There is in the bar. His appearance was a problem petuous as the motion of an oak in the hurrio puzzle even the aphinx herself. His cane. His voice became a trumpet, filled all a snug enough box, to live and to die there; they have clothed the body in decent high, pale brow, and small, nervously-twitchs with wild whirlwinds, deafening the car with in-1 fell on a sudden into such an unpre- grave clothes, and the undertaker is screwng face, seemed alive with the concentrated crashes of power, and yet intermingled with cedented line of thought, which took ing down the lid, slipping round on tip-toe. seence and the cream of genius; but then a sweet undersong of the sofiest cadence, such deep hold of my sympathies. Does be four to waken her? nis infantine blue eves, hardly vissible to His face was as red as a drunkard's - his seath their massive arches, looked dim, dreas forehead glowed like a heated furnace—his my, almost unconscious; and his clothing was countenance looked baggard like that of a it as I could recall on paper. so exceedingly sliably, that the court hesita- maniac; and ever and anon he flung his ted to let the cause proceed under his man-long, bony arms on high, as if grasping af ter thunder-bolts! He drew a picture of b Has your name been entered on the murder in such appalling colors that in comralls of the State?" demanded the Judge parison hell itself might be considered beau tiful. He painted the slanderer so black, " It is immaterial about my name's being that the sun seemed dark at noonday when intered on your rolls," answered the stran- shining on such an accursed monster-and ger, his thin, bloodless lips curling up into a then he fixed both portraits on the shrinking andish snear. "I may be allowed to speak brow of Hopkins, and he nailed them there nce, by the courtesy of the Court and bar, forever. The agitation of the audience

Here is my license from the highest tribunal | nearly amounted to madness. n America!" and he handed Judge Mills a | All at once the speaker descends from his perilous height. His voice wailed out for the murdered dead, and then described the In the examination of witnesses the stran- serrows of the widowed lieing- the beautier evinced but little ingenuity, as was com- ful Mary, more beautiful every moment, a apply thought. He suffered each one to her tears flowed faster-till men wept, and ell his own story without interruption, the lovely women sobbed like children.

e contrived to make each one of them tell He closed by a strange exhortation to the t over two or three times. He put few cross jury, and through them to the by-standers. questions, which, with keen witnesses, only He entreated the panel, after they should arve to correct mistakes; and he made no bring in their versitet for the plaintiff, not to ores, which, in neighty memories, always offer violence to the defendant, however tond to embarrace. The examination being richly be might deserve it; in other words, indeed, as counsed for the plaintiff he had a " not to lynch the villain, Hopkins, but leave lose; but to the astonishment of every one This was the most artful trick of all, and he declined the former, and allowed the defence to lead off. Then a shadow might have The jury rendered a verdict for fifty een observed to thit across the fine features thousand dellars; and the night afterwards, of Pile, and to darken even the bright eyes Hopkins was taken out of his bed by lynch-

Turtur; but who it was, or how it happened, As the Court adjourned, the stranger made known his name, and called the atten-Colonel Ashley spoke first. He dealt the tion of the people with the announcementjury a dish of that close, dry logic, which, "John Taylor will preach here this evening years afterwards, rendered him so famous in at early candle-light."

The crowd, of course, all turned out, and The poet, Albert Pike, followed with a Taylor's sermon equalled, if it did not surich vein of wit, and a half-torrent of caustic pass, the splendor of his forensic effort. This ridicule, in which you may be sure neither is no exaggeration. I have listened to Clay, water to Expense and Expense a and a brown table with carved lion's feet. But now at last he rises-before the bar Out of this room opens a little cabinet, on-turn the tide of popular opinion, or at least if in measureless scorn, slightly pars, and It happens to be the only house in the to mitigate the general wrath, which at first the voice comes forth. At first, it is low world of which I am bong fide owner, and was violent against him, circulated repairs and sweet insinuating itself through the I take a vast deal of comfort in treating it infamously prejudicial to the character of the brain, as an arriess tune, winding its way just as I choose. I manage to break some woman who had already suffered such wrong into the deepest heart, like the melody of a article of furniture almost every time I pay der. And thus the two causes, one criminal, eveds without a greature or the least sign readily of a morning, to breathe the tresh and the other civil, and both out of the same of excitement, to tear to pieces the argu- nir, I knock out a pane or two of grass with touch as rest before the sunbeam. Every old arm chair there is on the premises, and The interest naturally felt by the com- one looked surprised. This logic was at scarce ever fail to worry such a hole in once so brief, and so luminously clear, that the plastering, as would set me down for goers were all undertakers. without effort.

"Reveries of a Bachelor."

Auon, he came to the dazzling wit of the poer-lawyer. Pike. The curl of his lip self-or free hindled up.

As for the fire, I keep the little hearth so the whole space between the jame roars secret of attraction. He was the sun to the between,-multiplying contrivances with hour; though my only measure of time, lies light upon your arm, and you, too, His eyes began to glare furiously at the [for I never carry a watch into the countillank God, while yet you may ! slowly assumed the same direction. He hem thereabouts, my stock of wood is nearly Your step is not light; it is heavy, terrimed the wretch around with a circumvallat exhausted. I pile upon the hot coals what ble. tion of strong evidence and impregnable ar- remains, and sit watching how it kindles. They have sent for you.

of fire, he stripped himself to the work of I had exhausted all the ordinary rural topics of thought, had formed all sorts of con- dieu! sometimes even starting tears that I de. He asks you a simple question about the home-looking blaze, (I am a bachelor ef- speak. say six-and-twenty,) or possibly the plain- He takes up his hat and glides out stealtive cry of the baby in my tenant's room, thilly us a cat.

I piled upon the heated fire-dogs, the your hand over it-how smooth ! hast nemfull of my wood; and now, said [Some sprige of mignionette are lying bracing myself courageously between the carelessly in a little gilt-edged saucer .arms of my chair,-I'll not flinch ;-I'll pur- She laved mignionette. hasty. j-at least-continued 1, soliening, er-a man of family. -until my fire is out.

The wood was green, and at first showfore blaze; and so does doubt go before don't thrust your nails into your hands, nor As he passed on, Byles, who thought starting point, slipped into this shape.

(We wish we could give the "Reverse" on of the conclusion. It describes the heart, has gone out ! lose of the day dream in which the home now? Bachelor" has enjoyed the heavenly rightness of the domestic hearth.) But the trial comes: colder and colder hearth and blaze of sticks.

That wife, over whom your love broads, vould be nothing.

appreheusion, and she tries hard to make hat step of here elastic. Your trials and your loves together have entred your affections. They are not come after. now as when you were a lone man, wide spread and superficial. They have caught chair, they have bung new curtains over garded." He called his sentry his "ob- fifty dollars, and sent him to jail for contempt from domestic attachments a finer tone the bed .- They have removed from the serv-a-tory."

You do not now look men in the face as a heart-bond was linking you-as if a ommunity of feeling lay between. There | the wind to the shorn lamb-be kind ! a heart-bond that absorbs all others; The embers were dark I stirred them; there is a community that monopolizes there was no sign of life. My dog was suffer me to stir. I reasoned the matter your feeling. When the heart lay wide asleep. The clock in my tenant's cham- with him, and he has gone himself to and as such always an object of contempt. open, before it had grown upon, and clos- her had struck one. etrength and cheer from a hundred con-

r you !- are falling.

What anxiety pursues you! How you In a half hour more I was sleeping sound troughe to funcy-there is no danger; how ly. My reverse was ended. he struggles to persuade you-there is no

How it grates now on your ear-the il and turmoil of the city! It was muevening drew near.

at you across the table; they bow carelessly over the way; they do not know what canker is at your heart.

The undertaker comes with his bill for the dead boy's funeral. He knows your

Your eye follows the physician as he yourself; is he prudent? is he the hest! ful sweeping curves you should set yourselves the doctor came forth, and bowing with fiture. All who wish to make investments will find an examination that it can be in no bester way than in this.

| Complete the province of the privilege of took as with ague, and two of them actually setting one foot on each of the old iron is looking over a little picture book being ugly. It does make me nervous to see memorable dark day than in this.

| Complete the privilege of took as with ague, and two of them actually setting one foot on each of the privilege of took being ugly. It does make me nervous to see memorable dark day than in this.

spring can shines, and flowers open out of ing dresses, by seeing great, ugly, ignorant. memories are in bird songs! You need looked like a wool bag tied with a cord in

You are early home-mid-afternoon

She is lying down; her eyes half closed;

She presses harder your hand :- " Athe little ricketty house would not be after smell of varnish in your house. A coffin is not far from Mr. Belknap's residence in termined, the next day, to set as much of inscription upon the plate, rubbing it with his cont culf. You look him straight in the Something-it may have been the eye; you motion to the door; you dare not had suggested to me the thought of ... Mar- The man has done his work well for all It is a mon coffin !- a very micecoffin! Pass sue the thought wherever it leads, though It is a good staunch table the coffin rests it lead me to the d- (I am apt to be on ;-it is your table; you are a housekeep- who was a bookseller before the war.

Ay, of family !- keep down outery, or the nurse will be in. Look ever at the ed no disposition to blaze. It amoked fu- pinched features; is this all that is left of riously. Smoke, thought I, always goes he. her? And where is your heart now? No. decision; and my Reverie, from the very mingle your lip, nor grate your teeth to- himself privileged on old scores, exgether. If you could only weep!

--- Another day. The coffin is gone entire, but must pass over this most ex- out. The stopid mourners have wept- in my life." quisite burst of feeling, copying only a por- what idle tears! She, with your crushed

Go into the parlor that your prim bousekeeper has made comfortable with clean Sit down in your chair : there is anothe velvet-cushioned one, over against yours- board a guard ship, and to be sent to tading. Not beauty fading; that, now empty. You press your fingers on your England, with his family, in forty days hat your heart is wrapped in her being, eye bulls, as if you would press out some. This sentence was changed by the board rest upon the flashing blaze.

Ashes always come after blaze.

have air. It will not be too cold.

She is not there.

Oh, God !-thou who dost temper ons that now now seem colder than spaculated a prayer of thanks, that such desolution had not yet come nigh me ! and And now those particular objects-alas a prayer of hope-that it might never

A Letter to Country Girls.

DY MES. SWISSBELM. of, and turmon of the city. It was mueven, when from the din you were elabora- have written to you, and all this time you ting comforts for the cherished objects; have been making your dresses just as you remarks, the ladies expressed a wish to when you had such sweet cacage when used to do, with a long straight seam under see the doctor's curiosities, which he prothe arm. No ; it is not straight, but in the ceeded to exhibit; and after entertain-Now it muddens you to see the world form of an inclined plane, or what eurpen- ing them very agreeably for several arcless while you are steeped in care. ters call a bevel, and presset your sides into hours, he told them he had kept the They hastle you in the effect; they smile the shape of a funnel. You have all heard greatest curiosity to the last; when he about the Greek Slave, and know it is a proceeded to the closet, he unbuttoned marble statue, to show a most perfect and the door, and exhibited Mrs. Ryles. beautiful form, and I wish you could all see He had complained long, often, and curves, as graceful as the undulation between in front of his dwelling. grief; he is respectful. You bless him in Every one has a shape more or less like this. One morning, two of the fathers of the your soul. You wish the laughing street accordingly as she is more or less beautiful, town passing in a chaise, after a violent leaves your house: is he wise, you ask of beauty-of undulating outlines and grace- and pulling to the right and to the left, deliberately to work to manufacture your- great politeness, exclaimed :-And now the hand that touches yours, is selves into sharp angles, and straight, stiff t no thinner—no whiter than yesterday? outlines, with no more pretensions to grace you stirring in this matter at last." Sunny days come when she revives; color than the sides of a Datch churn? This you comes back; she breathes free; she picks flowers; she meets you with a smile; hope that seam under your arm. You sew it in a from the North Church steeple, and had rived from the Italian word breeze, to drink; But the next day of storm she is tallen. regular slope from the armpit to the bottom stready mounted, and was clapping his and the appellation had its origin in the She cannot talk even; she presses your sibly be made. This makes the smallest part Dr. Byles, mingling with the crowd, inof the waist, and that is as long as it can pes- wings, to the great delight of the mob. Practice followed by the knights, formerly, of You harry away from your business be- of your body below the ribs-that is, you quired what was the object of the gathsqueeze in the muscles and flesh where there ering. fore your time. What matter for cliente are no bones to resist the force, and so crowd -who is to reap the rewards? What your liver until it cannot act; and you grow strange, the current of public sentiment now perjured witnesses of Hopkins, tore their mantel, (using the family snuffers, with en? What matter for riches - whose is your faces. It is very strange that you can nes of Life Insurance. All men living ran decidedly for Hopkins. His money had testimony into atoms, and hurled into their one leg broke.) then, drawing my chair produced pointed witnesses, who served most faces such terrible invectives that all tremstance?

You find her propped with pillows; she ruin her own health for the privilege of look.

limbs of a supple Jack! I have grown so desperately disgusted with this way of makround below their ribe, and tied until they the centre. It is very strange that any one ing of good sense-would be caught dressed n a way that proclaims to every one her igorance of the laws of physiologs-of the rules of grace and symmetry, and of all taste for the painting and statuary of Greece nd Rome. I never see a woman dressed so, but the first thought is: " Wonder if that and nothing else can be pleaded in extenus-woman can read?" It is a sign of ignorance

The Joking Clergyman. A correspondent of the Boston Transript relates the following anecdotes of self!" the Rev. Mather Byles, the well known joking clergyman of Boston. Dr. Byles lived in the time of the Revolution, and

The distillery of Thomas Hill was at the corner of Essex and South streets, Lincoln street. Dr. Byles called on Mr. Hill, and inquired-

" Do you still ?" "That is my business," Mr. Hill re- perfumery.

"Then," said Mr. Byles, " will you o with me and still my wife ?"

As he was once occupied in nailing ome list upon his doors, to exclude the old, a parishioner said to him-"The wind bloweth wheresoever i listeth, Dr. Byles." "Yes, sir," replied the doctor, " and a man listeth wheresoever the wind blow-

He was intimate with General Knox, When the American troops took possesssion of the town, after the evacuation, Knox, who had become quite corpulent, marched in at the head of his artillery, did. Say "I wont?" [Laughter.] Where claime I, loud enough to be heard-

"I never saw an oz (a Knox) fatter But Knox was not in the vein. He felt offended by this freedom, especially old at dinner to-day, who said when she alling of the fire into "Ashes," or the Will you have pleasant evenings at your from Byles, who was then known to be a Tory, and replied in uncountly terms. In May, 1777, Dr. Byles was arrested as a Tory, and subsequently tried, conricted, and sentenced to confinement on thing that hurt the brain; but you cannot, of war to confinement within his own She sees with quick eye your dawning Your head leans upon your hand; your eyes house. A goard was placed over him, the parish judge, was that of an auctioneer. Go now into the room where ske was afterward replaced, and again removed, parish. It happened, on one occasion, in sick-sufily, lest the prim bousekeeper when the doctor exclaimed that he had They have put new dimity upon her been "guarded, regarded, and disre-inquire the cause.

"You see," said the doctor, "I begged the sentinel to let me go for some milk for my family, but he would not this parish-judge all the time-from the get it for me, on condition that I keep

One bitter December night he called his daughters from their bed simply to inquire if they lay warm. He had a small collection of curiosis ities. Some visiters called one morning, and Mrs. Byles, unwilling to be found at her ironing-board, and in the emergency, desiring to hide herself, as she would not be so caught by the ladies for the world, the doctor put her in the

it. The outside of the sides are two hollow fruitlessly, to the selectmen, of a quagmire graceful and natural; and is it not singular rain, became stuck in the bog. As they from Charleston, not to consult the North that after the Creator has given you a form were striving to extricate themselves. Star-

"I am delighted, gentlemen, to see

" We have come, sir, to see a man fly," said one. " Poh! poh! I have seen a horse fly," said the doctor. Upon the 19th of May, 1780, the " Dear Doctor-How do you accoun for this darkness ?" And received his immediate raply-

" Dear Madam-I am as much in the dark as you are." This, for sententious brevity, has never been surpassed, unless by the correscondence between the comedian, Sant

Foote, and his mother-" Dear Sam-I am in jail."

" Dear Mather-So am I." He had, at one time, a remarkably stupid Irish girl, as a domestic. With a ook and veice of terror, he said to her n haste-"Go say to your mistress, Dr. Byles ias put an end to himself !" The girl flow up the stairs, and, with a face of horror, exclaimed at the top of her voice-"Dr. Byles has put an end to him-

The astonished wife and daughters rushed into the parlor, 'and there was the doctor calmly walking about with a part of a cow's tail, that he had picked up in the street, tied to his coat or cassock behind."

To Nature is spoken of in the feminine gender, because she is so extravagant in rich carpets, drapery, dress and

De Southey said that a sweeter verse never was composed than this:-

Verse sweetens toil, however rule the sound ; All at her work the village malden sings, Nor while she turns the giddy wheel around, Revolves the and vicissitudes of dings."

"I won't !"-At a Woman's Rights Convention, Mr. Foster, the husband of Abby Kelley Foster, after a long speech on woman's rights, concludes by charging that the pulpit and St. Paul were responsible for the englavement of the sex. When the priest says to the woman, "Love, honor and obey," what can she do?

Abby Kelley Foster -- Do! Do as the wife of the Rev. Joseph Bancroft, of Worcester, they came to the word "obey," she said "I won't !" She was a good woman, and s much better man than her sor George. She said "I won't!" and she compelled them to leave that part out.

Mr. Faster (husband of Abby Kelley)-Yes; and there was a lady of seventy years same to the word "obey" she dropped her husband's band. [Laughter.] A Junge's Parvineges .- Judge Dick laiborne, under the cocked but and enornous prerogative of parish judge, awayed the sceptre of Northwestern Louisians, with a potentiality and vigor hardly equalled at the present day, by the czar of Russia. Among the multifarious duties and powers of After a time the sentinel was removed. He sold all the property of succession in his elling out the property of a deceased grot cer, that an unruly parishioner disturbed the order of proceedings. The judge fined him Court. An application was made to and touch. They cannot shoot out ten- stand its phials, and silver bell; they have Perceiving, one morning, that the sen by an attorney to remit the fine, and release rils into barren world-soil and suck up put a little vase of flowers in their place; tinel, a simple fellow, was absent, and the prisoner, on the ground that it was no thence strengthening nutriment. They the perfume will not offend the sick sense seeing Dr. Byles himself pacing before contempt of court, as the judge, when fulfillhave grown under the forcing glass of the now. They have half opened the winhouse-roof, they will not now bear expos- dow, that the room so long closed may shoulder, the neighbors stepped over to court, and therefore not an object of contempt. The judge immediately drew himself up with all dignity and conscious power, and replied: " Sir, I'll let you know that I am judge of rising of the sun to the guing down thereof;

A Frenchman, unacquainted with business, once received a draft payable in three days sight at a bank. The first day he presented himself at the counter; and taking the draft from his pocket-book, extended is before the eyes of the paying teller, and to his astonishment said, " You see that once," and folding the draft he walked away. The next morning he appeared again, and going through the same form, said, "You see that twice." The third day he appeared sgain and said, " You see him three time. By Gar, you will pay him."

The two "learned gentlemen," who drow up the regulations for the West Boston Bridge Company, must have been very deepy road. They were lawyers : and one scoion of the document was written and acthe said preprietors shall meet annually on the first Tuesday in June, provided the same does not fall on Sunday."

Frentice, of the Louisville Journal, says that the Legislature of South Carolina has issued instructions to mariners sailing

The word beaver, in the sense of a overing for the head, is not derived, as most peop'e imagine, from the animal of the same name, the fur of which is used in the converting the believt into a drinking vessel, when more suitable curs were not at hand, Our English word beverage comes from the same Italian root.

John Quincy Adams said he did ant consider the profession of the law, in point of importance, beyond that of the memorable dark day, a lady wrote to the wright, or the mason, or any mechanical profession.